

Minutes of HRSPA Luncheon
October 26, 2017

The meeting was called to order at Willow Oaks Country Club by Jackie Warren, president. She led the members and guests in the Pledge of Allegiance and announced that the minutes and treasurer's report were on the tables.

After an invocation and the meal, Jackie Warren introduced Gay Rudis, the 2017 Henrico Christmas Mother. She discussed the growing need and what they provide for families. Then Good Vibrations, a choral group, provided entertainment for us.

After the program, Jackie Warren, read the list of Lost Members and then proceeded with the Business portion of the meeting. The treasurer's report was approved and filed for audit.

Chairman reports:

Pat Rollison – Scholarship. This year they will be giving $3,000 to a graduating senior. And $1,000 to a teacher in a degree program or who is upgrading their skills.

Dianne Hughs Shuler – Nominating. Please step up to volunteer for next year. Currently need a VP for term that ends in June.

Lee Reynolds – Newsletter Editor. Reminded members to use the Staples reward number that is on the back of the membership card. It helps with the cost of printing the newsletter.

Becky Goshorn – Encouraged members to vote on November 7th. There will be a brief 2 question survey sent to members the day after the election to see if they voted. Also mentioned getting involved with VRTA.

Bill Pike was here with his illustrator, Nell Chesley, to sell their book.

Reminders: update mailing address, vote on November 7th, and April 26, 2017 is the Spring Luncheon.

Table prizes of lottery scratch-off tickets were awarded, and Myrna Cartledge won the 50/50 raffle of $36.00.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Betsy Pike
