

MINUTES OF HRSPA LUNCHEON
October 31, 2019

The meeting was called to order at Willow Oaks Country Club by Jackie Warren, President. She led the members and guests in the Pledge of Allegiance. She also gave the invocation. First time attendees were recognized.

After the lunch, Jackie Warren introduced the guests. The first guest was Andy Jenks, Director of Communications and Community Engagement for HCPS. He discussed his background, snow closures, and announcements in different languages. The second guest was Andrea Collins, the 2019 Henrico County Christmas Mother. The program has been in existence for 77 years. It has an annual budget of over $200,000. They serve over 1,400 families, seniors, and disabled adults. Schools collect over 120,000 food items.

Jackie read a list of members who were lost in the past year.

Business Portion -

Jim Dubrueler, VRTA insurance agent of record was introduced. He said they have a new office in Richmond and mentioned options they offer for retirees.

The minutes of the last luncheon and the treasurer's report were approved as presented. The treasurer's report will be filed for audit.

Becky Goshorn - VRTA membership is $20 a year or $200 for life membership.

HRSPA membership is currently at 290 members. This is very low.

Pat Rollison, Scholarship Chair - honor a teacher or mentor with a donation to the scholarship fund.

Tina Whitaker, Legislative Chair - important to be involved.

Lee Reynolds, Newsletter Editor - encouraged people to save their ink cartridges to help offset the cost of printing.

Reminders-

Please join a committee. The next luncheon is April 23, 2020. Table prizes of a treat bag were awarded. Nancy Langhorn won the 50/50 raffle of $42.00 and donated it to HRSPA.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Betsy Pike